It is getting time to shove off odds and ends, the Summer season being pretty well advanced, some popular lines of goods have had a good run, on account of which they have been ordered over and over again, these particular lines we are now very anxious to sell, and in order to make such, reductions as will sell them even though the customer should not have any particular use for them, the smallest cut we are making this week, is 25 percent. on former prices. Now we will start out on Embroideries.

Embroideries!! Embroideries!!
Hamburg Edgings, nice qualities $1-2c
Hamburg Edging good width 5c.
Hamburg Edging 4 1-2c.
Hamburg Edging 6 1-2c.
Hamburg Edging 7c., and all the way up to 50c. per yd., of course we have a cheaper line of Embroideries, but the line named above is of the very best quality and not an undesirable pattern in the lot, they are worth 25 percent more than the price we are selling them for.

Swiss and Lawn Embroideries.
We have a large line of these in all widths, ranging from 10c. to 50c. per yard, in this line we are showing the biggest drive ever offered in this market.

We are offering a line of Trench laces, and insertions from 3c. to 50c. per yard, by which you can judge how cheap goods are getting.

White Goods and Lawns.
We are still pushing the printed linen lawns at 15, 16 1-2, 18, 23 1-2, 25, 30c. per yard, every yard of which is worth nearly double that price. Our white goods are selling down, they are the greatest bargain ever sold in this market. We are selling them at 81-1c. per yd.

We have a big lot of India lawns left which we have reduced in price until there is no bottom left.

Our colored Victoria lawns have been reduced to 16 2-3c. per yd.; they went like hot cakes all this summer at 25c.

This is an Opportunity for Bargains and no ONE should MISS IT.

DRAWN SWORDS!

Russia Throws Down the Gauntlet to England in the Afghan Land.

It Will be War, for Both Sides are Pushing Troops Toward the Front.

"England Will Never Condone a Second Edition of That Pendish Outrage."

France Will Probably Assist Russia and Germany Join Forces with England.

RUSSIA'S ADVANCE.

Movements of the Russian Character in Progress in Afghanistan.

London, July 16.—The Standard in an editorial on the Russian advance of Russian troops to Zulfikar Pass says: "Although more reassuring news was received late yesterday from Colonel Ridgeway, chief of the British-Afghan boundary commission, news from other sources regarding Russian movements is of the gravest character."

The only redeeming feature of intelligence from Afghanistan, says the Standard, is that the Afghans have not touched themselves more firmly than to our side.

RUSSIAN ARROGANCE.

London, July 16.—The Daily Telegraph says the complications between England and Russia regarding the Afghan frontier question have become serious; Russia is preferring new claims and refuses to yield to Lord Salisbury, whose tone, although studiously friendly, is firm. The Standard in an editorial on the same subject declares England will never concede a second edition of the Pendish outrage.

FRANCO-RUSSIAN ALLIANCE.

Vienna, July 16.—The "Pölsche Correspondenz" published a semi-official dispatch from St. Petersburg to-day on the Central Asia question, in which it says: "Russia counts with certainty on the help of France in any war the czar may have with England in Asia." "France," the article declares, "will be compelled to establish a protectorate over Tonquin, and the English in India will then be between two fires and their interest is to avoid any policy likely to lead to a Franco-Russian alliance. This is a set-off to the increasing friendship between Germany and England."

ENGLAND SUPPORTS AFGHAN.

London, July 16.—The morning's Telegraph in its article on the Afghan news says: "The objection of Russia to the Russian claim to a position practically commanding Zulfikar Pass is supported by Lord Salisbury. Lord Salisbury's reluctance to consent to Russia's offer to submit the question to dispute is a joint commission, is owing to his belief that such a course would be resultless and would only delay settlement of the matter."

THE TIMES SAYS ALL THE POWERS WITH THE EXCEPTION OF RUSSIA HAVE GIVEN THEIR ASSENT TO THE ISSUE OF AN EGYPTIAN LOAN. RUSSIA'S SILENCE, THE TIMES SAYS, INCREASES APPREHENSION REGARDING THE AFGHAN QUESTION.

MASSING THEIR FORCES.

Tehran, Persia, July 16.—A large number of Russian reinforcements have arrived at Merv and Pul-i-Khidi during the past fortnight.

FOUR REGIMENTS FROM CAHUL, THE CAPITAL OF AFGHANISTAN, HAVE REACHED HERE. FOUR OTHER REGIMENTS ARE ON THEIR WAY TO HERAT.

SPAIN'S STORY.

Madrid, July 16.—Several persons have been arrested at Saragossa on suspicion of being connected with a conspiracy to bring about a rising in favor of the establishment of a republic in Spain. Intelligence has also been received here that an armed band of republican agitators was encountered by a detachment of Spanish troops near Matary, a maritime town fifteen miles from Barcelona, and dispersed them; many of the band being captured. It is now admitted that cholera exists in the provinces of Alcala and Navarre.

CHOLERA'S CAPTIVES.

Madrid, July 16.—There were 1499 new cases of cholera and 664 deaths in Spain yesterday.

THE BRITISH EMPIRE.

THE SALVATION ARMY.

London, July 17.—Mrs. Booth positively declines to make public the contents of the letters which she announced, at the Princess's ball conference, that she had received from the Marquis of Salisbury and Mr. Gladstone in approval of her work in attempting to rescue young girls from the perils of the Iniquity exposed by the Fall Mail Gazette. She says however that she will read the letters at the Women's meeting in Exeter hall this afternoon. Mrs. Booth says she also has letters from the queen, written three weeks ago, in which Her Majesty expresses sympathy with the work of the Salvation Army in protecting young girls; this letter will also be read at the meeting to-day.

GRANT AND BUCKNER.

Touching Incidents of the Meeting of These Old-Time Friends at Mount McGregor.

New York, July 16.—General Simon B. Buckner, the ex-confederate soldier who called upon General Grant at Mount McGregor, and had a long chat with him, at the Fifth Avenue hotel, will return to his home in Kentucky to-morrow. General Buckner has hitherto persistently declined to make public any part of his interview with General Grant, and the ground that it was private and personal. General Buckner was a classmate of General Grant at West Point, and served with him in the Mexican war, and their friendly relations were never weakened, notwithstanding they fought on opposite sides during the late war. After mature consideration and becoming satisfied that the general would not object, General Buckner yesterday decided to give to the public the portion of the memorable interview which, in his opinion, is of interest to the country at large. He has written a little slip of paper on which General Grant had written, almost as though they were sacred.

General Buckner said: "We had some general conversation, which was of interest to me, but of course, in the course of it, however, General Grant wrote one paragraph which I regard as of great importance, and which the public have a right to read. Here it is in full just as he wrote it. I have witnessed since my sickness just what I have wished to see since the war—harmony and good feeling between the sections. I have always contended that if there had been no body left but the soldiers, we would have had peace in a year. There are only two, that I know of, who do not seem to be satisfied, on the southern side, with the result of the war. I failed to accomplish as much as they wished; who did not get warmed up to the light until it was over and who have not had quite full satisfaction. We have some of these in the South. I will look forward to a perpetual peace at home and a national strength that will solve the mystery of the late war. I believe, myself, that the war was worth all it cost us, fearful as that was. Since it was over I have visited every State in the Union, and I know now as I did not before, the value of our institutions."

THE TEXAS RAILWAY RACKET.

Galveston, July 16.—In the district court to-day Maurice Sullivan filed a suit against the Windsor and Tremont Hotel company for damages resulting from the explosion of a boiler which occurred at the Tremont hotel in this city on the 3rd of May last. The plaintiff is the party who was injured in the explosion of the boiler. He prays for judgment for $5,000 for injuries to body and mind; $100 for injuries to a cork leg, and $81 for injuries to personal property.

TEXAS RAILWAY RACKET.

Galveston, July 16.—The conference of railway managers of Texas and other southwestern roads held a brief session to-day. The discussion was merely preliminary, as to the means of arriving at a basis for pooling earnings. None of the several important interests represented, have thus far proposed any tangible basis upon which to declare the percentages of the proposed pool. The sessions of the board, however, are private, but it is generally expressed the belief that no definite results will be reached before Saturday.

HEBREW CONGREGATIONS.

St. Louis, July 16.—The third day's session of the council of the American Union of Hebrew Congregations was opened this morning with prayer by Rev. Joseph M. Stetson, of Wilmington, N. C.

The committee appointed to nominate a board of Examiners for the Hebrew Union college and an executive board, submitted their reports, which were adopted.

A resolution of sympathy with General Grant was adopted, and after the usual vote of thanks, the council adjourned, sine die.

Immediately after the adjournment of the council, the Rabbinic met and formed a Hebrew Literary union, and the executive board was organized by the re-election of the old officers.

A Newspaper Accused of Libel.

Kansas City, July 16.—A verdict of acquittal was returned this afternoon in the suit for libel against John C. Shea by Rev. Henry D. Jardine, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church in this city. The defendant admitted the circulation of a pamphlet charging indecent conduct on the part of the rector toward certain female members of his congregation and maintained that the charges were well founded. A libel suit was brought for $5,000 against the Times of this city is still pending.
